

State	Import requirement	Effective date	Comments
Arkansas	Pigs must be inspected by a veterinarian and the the CVI must include a statement that the pigs are traveling from a site that hasn't had a PEDV case in the last 60 days. The state of Arkansas must then be called, (501) 907-2400, and an entry permit number must be issued for the health certificate.	2-Apr-14	Effects all swine entering the state.
Idaho	CVI must be signed by both the owner and the accredited veterinarian and contain the following statement: "To the best of my knowledge, swine represented on this certificate have not, within the last 30 days, originated from premises known to be affected by PEDv and have not been exposed to PEDv."	5-Mar-14	Effects all swine entering the state, for purposes other than shipment direct to slaughter
North Dakota	CVI must be signed by both the owner and the accredited veterinarian and contain the following statement: "The premises the swine are originating from has not had any signs or a diagnosis of Transmissible Gastroenteritis (TGE) or Porcine Epidemic Diarrhea virus (PEDv) in the last 60 days."	4-Mar-14	Requires any pigs shipped into the state or within the state to have a health certificate stating there have been no clinical signs of PED or TGE
Oklahoma	CVI must be signed by the accredited veterinarian containing the following statement: "To the best of my knowledge, swine represented on this certificate have not originated from a premises known to be affected by Porcine Epidemic Diarrhea virus (PEDv), and have not been exposed to PEDv within the last 30 days."	10-Feb-14	Effects non-commercial hogs entering Oklahoma for purposes other than immediate slaughter.
Texas	CVI must be signed by the accredited veterinarian containing the following statement: "To the best of my knowledge, swine represented on this certificate have not originated from a premises known to be affected by Porcine Epidemic Diarrhea virus (PEDv), and have not been exposed to PEDv within the last 30 days."	7-Feb-14	Effects non-commercial hogs entering Texas for purposes other than immediate slaughter.

Utah	requires all hogs and pigs entering Utah to be inspected by a veterinarian, and have a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) that contains the following language; "To the best of my knowledge, swine represented on this certificate have not, within the past 30 days, originated from premises known to be affected by Porcine Epidemic Diarrhea virus (PEDv) and have not been exposed to PEDv."	5-May-14	Impacts all swine entering the state.
Washington	CVI must be signed by both the owner and the accredited veterinarian and contain the following statement: "To the best of my knowledge, swine represented on this certificate have not originated from premises known to be affected by Porcine Epidemic Diarrhea virus (PEDv), and have not been exposed to PEDv within the last 30 days."	20-Feb-14	Impacts all swine entering the state.

Link

www.arlpc.org

www.agri.idaho.gov

<http://www.nd.gov/ndda/>

www.ag.ok.gov/

www.tahc.state.tx.us/

<http://ag.utah.gov/home/news/454-emergency-order-issued-to-protect-utah-swine.html>

<http://agr.wa.gov/>